WINNIP

To the graduates of 2010:

Congratulations!

I am proud to join you on this extraordinary occasion and wish you well as you move forward as leaders in our global community.

Convocation marks a day when the whole University turns its focus to its reason for being. This is a university where the next generation of leaders is born and where students from all walks of life can achieve their dreams.

Every one of you has much to be proud of today and I encourage you to take great satisfaction in seeing the results of your hard work. You are the star of show; relish your accomplishments!

Today we look to the future in great anticipation and optimism. University of Winnipeg

WINNIP

To the graduates of 2010

Global citizenship has never been more important. I am optimistic because I believe that you – our next generation of community leaders, business people and economists, artists and actors, scientists, politicians, responsibility to champion human rights, and that compassion is worth cultivating.

To the Class of 2010:

Congratulations! You have now joined over 40,000 individuals in the special membership known to welcome you to the club!

The relationships that you developed during your studies will keep The University of Winnipeg

Clifford J. Robson Memorial Award for Excellence in Teaching

Young is a consummate researcher who shares her knowledge. She has trained and mentored numerous undergraduate students, giving them valuable hands-on research experience. Young serves as an excellent role model for her students and her colleagues.

University of Winnipeg, is celebrated for delivering an education that meets high academic standards, with an enthusiastic teaching style that is friendly and engaging.

as “a professor with integrity who respects her students.

She is always utilizing contemporary teaching technologies to take on extra classes because her care for her students is genuine.”

Young ensures her students understand the material while developing a relationship that permits her to counsel and advise them, which she describes as a privilege. She has created and designed two courses that students constantly seek out and are continuously waitlisted.

Her students describe her as “always positive, creative and fair.” Her classes are always lively and inclusive, and are
