Human Rights International Practicum Ideas and Information

There are many ways to find international practicum placements – through word of mouth, your professor's personal contacts, other students, youth organizations and through volunteer websites.

Below you will find a list of possible practicum organizations. These are simply suggestions of organizations which we have worked with in the past; there is no guarantee that they will agree to accepting a practicum student.

It is suggested that you speak with the Practicum Director prior to contacting the organization.
